

INTRODUCTION TO DSBA ZOOM LIVE WEBINAR CLES

Due to the cancellation of in person, live CLE approved courses, because of restrictions imposed by the Governor's COVID-19 response, the Supreme Court of the State of Delaware Commission on Continuing Legal Education has waived the requirement that at least 12 of the 24 CLE credit hours must be earned by attending in person live CLE approved courses. The requirement is waived for the two year periods ending December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021. All 24 CLE credit hours for those two-year periods may be satisfied by approved courses that do not require an in-person, live appearance.

The Supreme Court of the State of Delaware Commission on Continuing Legal Education cannot accept phone conferencing only. You must attend through a device that allows us to obtain your Bar Id in order to receive CLE credit.

Your attendance will be automatically monitored beginning at the scheduled start time and will be completed when the CLE has ended. If you enter or leave the meeting after or before the scheduled start/end time, you will receive credit only for the time you attended. Your CLE credits will be submitted to the Delaware and Pennsylvania Commissions on CLE, as usual.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Grace L. Mead, Esquire and Sarah McBride will speak to a wide range of issues faced by transgender people, including those faced by openly transgender women in professional environments like law. They will begin by framing the moderated discussion with an overview of the international medical consensus driving recent court decisions and policy-making. They will also discuss the changes in the legal and societal landscape from when each began grappling with her identity many years ago to the Supreme Court's decision in Bostock v. Clayton County, Georgia this summer. They encourage participants to submit questions to Grace in advance at gmead@stearnsweaver.com in order to make as much of the two hours as possible.
